The purpose of this form is to gather your feedback on what aspects of your project were performed well, what areas of improvement we need to consider for the next project and any other comments or suggestions you would like to provide

Your responses to following questions are greatly appreciated.

1. How has communication with stakeholders been over the duration of the project, including responsiveness to initial request?

Rating: Very good

Comments:

Group Aymen Bouchaddek (G2) demonstrated excellent communication with stakeholders throughout the project duration. They were responsive to initial requests and maintained regular updates.

2. Areas of improvement / other comments

While communication was commendable, Group 2 could enhance stakeholder engagement by soliciting feedback more actively and incorporating it into project decisions.

3. Evaluation

4.5 / 5
